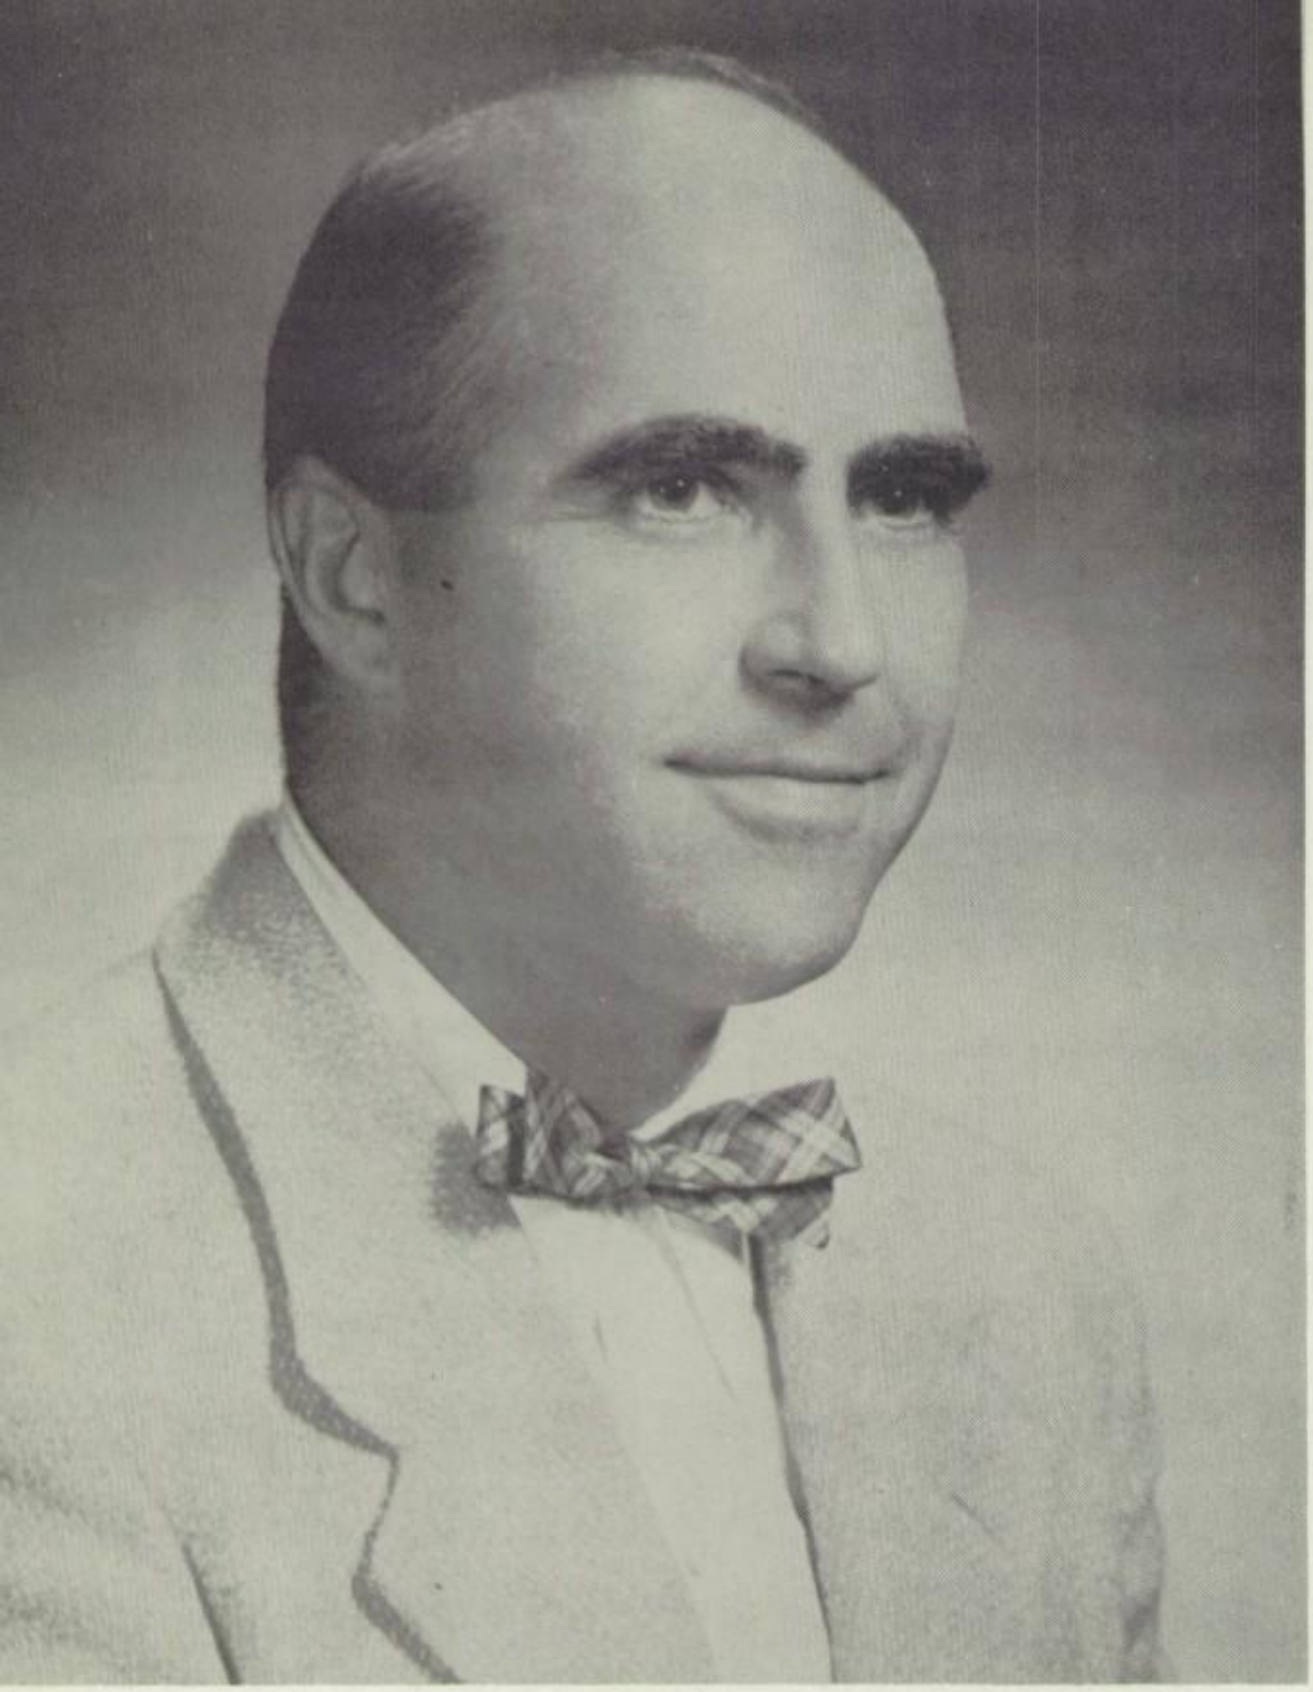
Our Pledge

I pledge to so conduct myself that I will leave St. Petersburg High School not only as good as I found it, but better for my having been here. I will always endeavor to be a good citizen, courteous and loyal to all responsibilities, and mentally alert in all my school relationships.

The Alma Mater

Old St. Pete High!
How proudly we honor and praise you;
Time will not change you;
Your spirit will never die.
We're here to boost you
In classroom, on gridiron and field, too.
You are to us our own, our wonderful
St. Pete High.

Words by MARGARET SUE BURNEY, 1918



DOUGLAS O. McBRIARTY
Assistant Principal
and Dean of Boys

Dedication

For your kindness and understanding, for your readiness to help us "in or out of trouble," for your gentle humor which has added spice and zest to our school life, for your quiet and unpretentious performance of your duties to parent, teacher, and student, we, the class of 1955, dedicate the NO-SO-WE-EA to you, our own Mr. "Mac."

Juniors

The hard working Junior Class was off to a good start when they presented their "Junior Jamboree," which met with huge success! To raise money for the annual Junior-Senior Prom, put on by them for the Seniors, they were kept busy making and selling pom-poms and manning the parking lot at football games. They succeeded in raising enough money to hold the big event at the Coliseum. We are proud of you, Juniors!

The JUNIOR CLASS ADVISORS, Eleanor Stewart and Mildred MacKenzie, have guided the class through a successful year.

Here are the little ones of SPHS. They were greeted during the first few weeks with dances, elections, and plenty of excitement. Entering into a busy schedule, they put on a talent assembly and then ended their first year with the Sophomore Party, a dance they enjoyed while the upperclassmen were waltzing at the Prom.

Miss Louise Wilder and Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens are the ADVISORS for this year's Sophomore Class.

Our Band

Our band, rated in 1953-54 as one of the four superior state bands in Class AA, was reduced this year to Class A because of the loss of members to the new high schools. We continue to participate in the Sunshine Festival, the Gasparilla, the Bradenton De Soto Pageant, and many other celebrated events. During the year, the band presents two concerts, one in the fall and one in the spring.

Alpha and Omega

At the beginning and at the end of each school day, we observe an impressive Flag Ceremony. The Flag is raised in the morning and lowered in the afternoon amidst trumpets blowing and drums rolling. This is a tradition started on the very first day St. Petersburg Senior High School opened its doors in September, 1926.

Homecoming

Homecoming, 1954, was celebrated with many activities: The Key Club's beard-growing contest; the big parade with many attractive floats; the dance after the game; the pep chapel and announcement of Homecoming Queen Laurie Truscott and her court—Betty Otey, Jocie Horlacher, and Dolores Kuban; and finally St. Pete's victory over Boca Ciega to win the City Championship!

The affair was planned by the S.G. Social Committee, which is headed by Lynn Willingham and Bruce Hadlock.

GRADUATES!

Eighteen can be a risky age . . .

. . . and in more ways than one! Especially in the matter of hospitalization insurance. After you reach 18, the chances are you can no longer be covered under your family's insurance!

If this happens and you should be hospitalized, your parents would have to pay the entire bill—and it could run into hundreds of dollars!

This risk is unnecessary, because for only a few pennies a day you can have adequate amounts of hospital and surgical insurance through the Individual Hospital Expense Policy issued by the Hartford Accident and Indemnity Company, one of the country's largest insurance firms.

You'll be covered at home, away at college—anywhere in the world! Be sure and show this message to your parents—or better yet—have them call us now for full details.

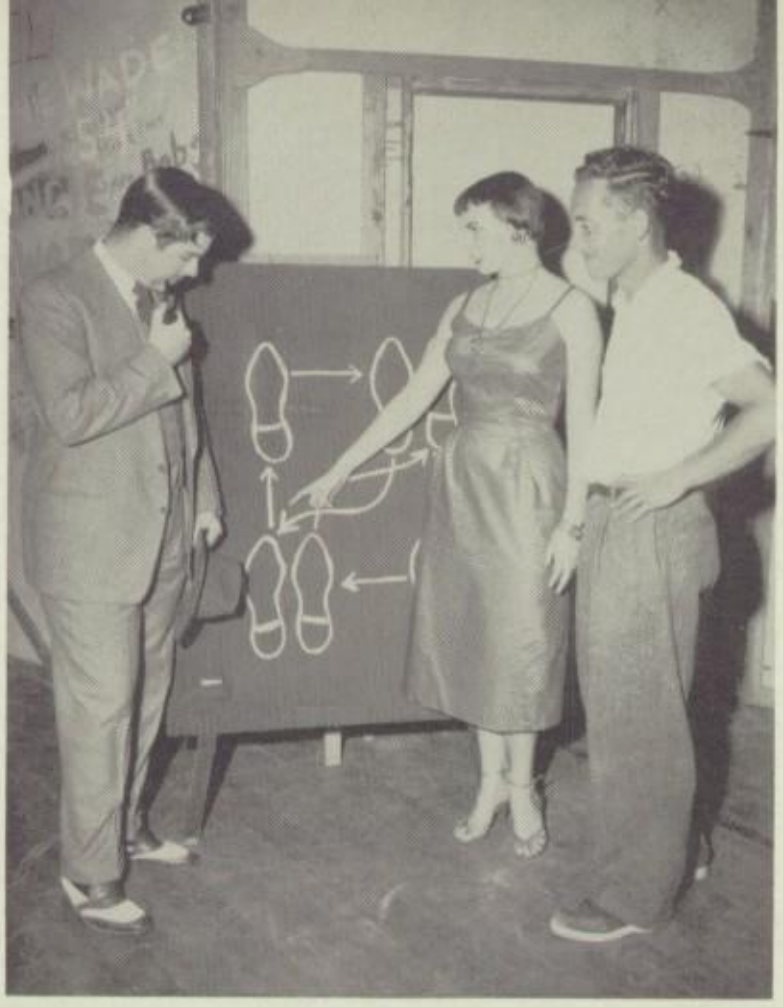
Student Director Dot Pounds gives last minute stage business to Assistant Stage and Construction Manager Tom Pierce, while Faculty Director Dean Pike looks on.



The plot of the play centers around the two leads, Jamie Conner (Mrs. Letitia Turmbull) and Nancy Frey (Miss Crystal Hower).

The Senior Class Presents "Two Blind Mice"

by

Samuel Spewack

What would any production be without a stage crew? Left to right: Reford Brawn, Bob Turner, Whitman McConnell, and Jan Spearman.

THE ROMANTIC LEADS . . . Tom Pierce (Dr. Henry McGill), Rae Perroni (Karen Norwood), and Ed Rich (Tommy Thurston).

Sound Effects Manager Manley Davis and Wardrobe Mistress Sarah Wittstruck await an important cue.

This and That as the Year Ended

Top to bottom: 1. Miss Frances Nippert explains our reading clinic's purposes and procedures to Sophomore Martha Peyinghous, interested Parent Dr. Truscott and his daughter, Laurie. 2. Keyettes Marsha Miller, Rae Perroni, and Gail Reichelderfer brew a witch's potion for their Sorcerer's Ball, an annual spring event at SPHS. 3. Who's the Lion that broke into the Class Night production? 4. Our Boys' State delegates Ken Letzring, Dick Tomlin, Dick Cronk, Gordon Norton check with Mr. Mac for final instructions. 5. The cheerleaders for the 1955-56 season pose for their first picture together—Left to right: Gail Reichelderfer, Susan Gregory, Hazel Saxton, Annette Kent, Head Cheerleader Wendy Gardiner, Jane Currie, Barbara Jackson, Barbara Peruche, Shirley Ammon. 6. At the No-So-We-Ea Assembly, the staff presented corsages to Mrs. Worley and Miss Bischoff in appreciation of the invaluable help they had given to the yearbook—Left to right: Mrs. Worley, Circulation Manager Joe Brown, Miss Bischoff, Art Editor Jean Wright, and Advertising Manager Danny Adcock. 7. Spanish Teacher Betty Williams presents a medal for four years of excellence in Spanish to Judy Hewitt. Other winners of the award were Joe Brown, Charles Moreland, Sherry Nichols, and Laurie Truscott.

This was a fine year at SPHS. We accomplished much in the classroom, in the field of sports, in publications, in our various organizations and clubs. And this was a happy year, because in the process of getting things done, we had harmony, brimming over into laughter, among students, faculty, and administration. Au revoir, hasta la vista, si Dios lo ordena!

Top to bottom: 1. Junior Exchange Club members enjoy themselves at their annual Bar-be-que. 2. Pat Constantine receives applause as she is announced Queen of the Key Club's Sportsmans' Ball. 3. Do-Gooders Club gives a going-away party for Europe-bound faculty members. The two gentlemen behind the lilies are the club's High Lord Chairman Marten Neff and High Lord Caterer Leroy Kaufman. 4. No-So-We-Ea typists, Joyce Sheats and Jeanneane Shean, Junior staff members Pat Nine, and Handbook Editor Sherry Nichols pause from work to smile for photographer. 5. Bruce Myers frolics during the floorshow of Junior Civitan's Inaugural Ball. 6. Girls' State Delegates Annette Kent, Carolyn Cushman and Wendy Gardiner bid Miss Lynch goodbye. 7. Look out, Europe, you'll never be the same after this contingent of SPHS faculty and students, under Commanding Officer "Doc" Geneva, breezes through your cities and towns this summer!

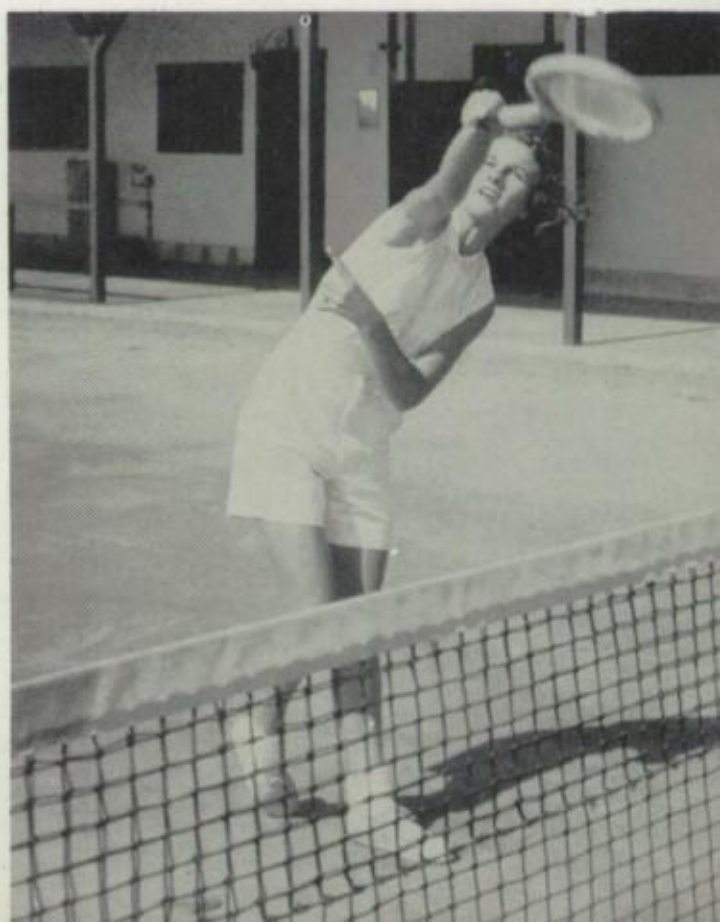
OUR TENNIS TEAM: Jacy Battles, Sandra Lewis, Jean McCannon, and Pat Shaffer.

The Tennis Team gathers around the net with two famous personalities, Doris Hart and Shirley Fry.

Tennis Teams

The girls' tennis team this year has done more than its share of obtaining top honors. It was undefeated this season with decided victories over Mainland, Sarasota, Plant and Manatee. They went to Gainesville to cop the State Tournament, winning singles and doubles in both first and second divisions. Pat Shaffer captured the first division singles, Sandra Lewis won the second division singles by defeating teammate Jacy Battles in the finals. Shaffer and Lewis won the first division doubles, and Jean McCannon and Jacy Battles were winners in the second division doubles. To finish the year they won the Western Conference Championship, taking both singles and doubles titles.

Captain of our tennis team, and State champ in first division singles and doubles, Pat Shaffer.



Holder of second division singles and first division doubles titles, Sandra Lewis.

Captains of the 1955 tennis teams, Pat Shaffer and Ned Agee, talk with their advisor, Mrs. Margaret Francis.

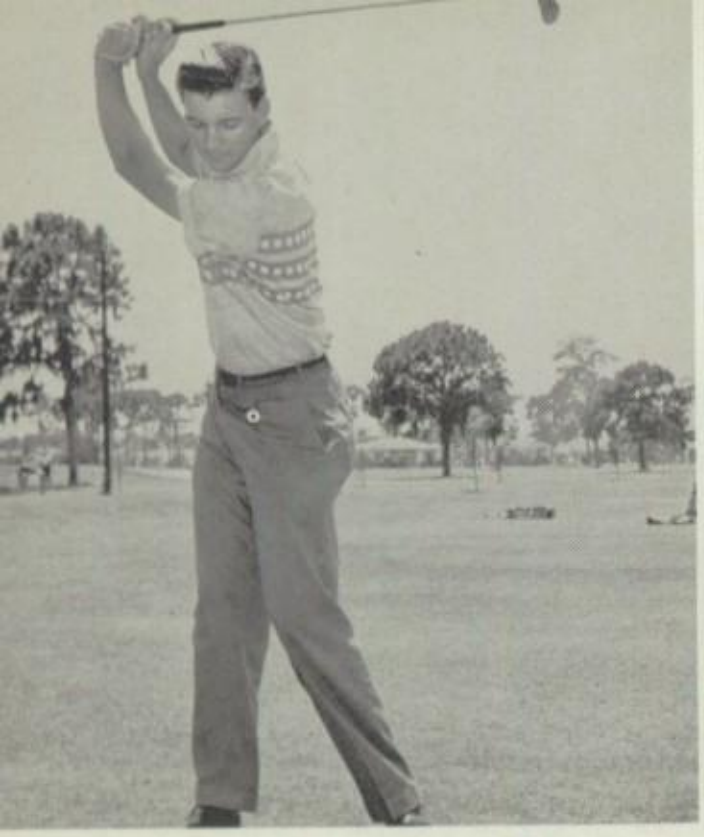
Congratulations are in store for the boys' tennis team, for having won six out of eight matches this season. They won against Mainland, Boca Ciega, Manatee, Jefferson, and lost to Plant and Sarasota.

Jacy Battles, one-half of the pair who brought back the championship in the state second division doubles.

The other half of the second division doubles team, Jean McCannon.



Captain DON DICKSON, champion of the finals in the Western Conference and medalist in the Western Conference Tourney.

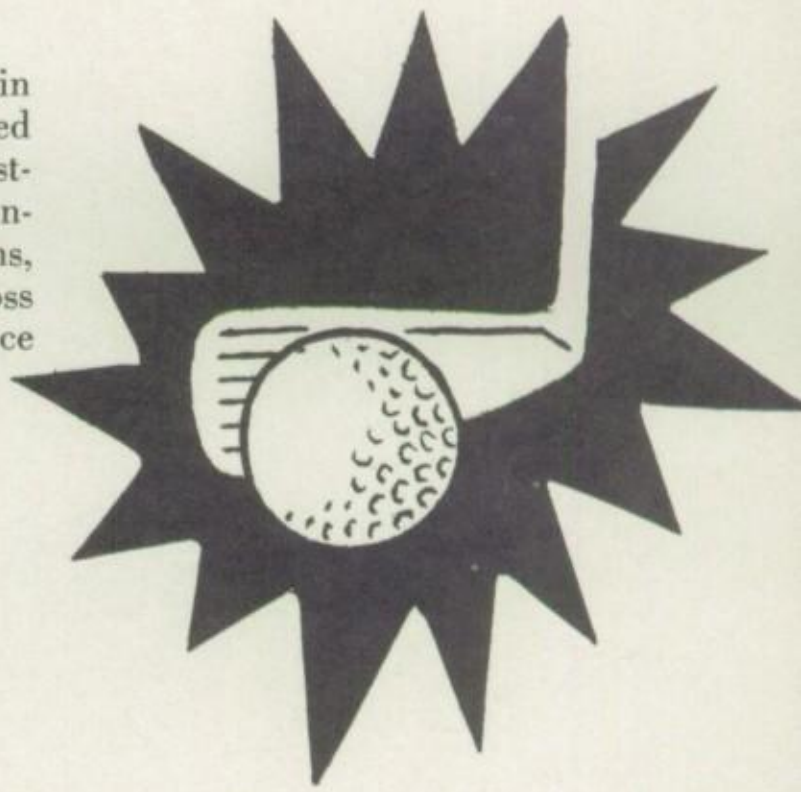
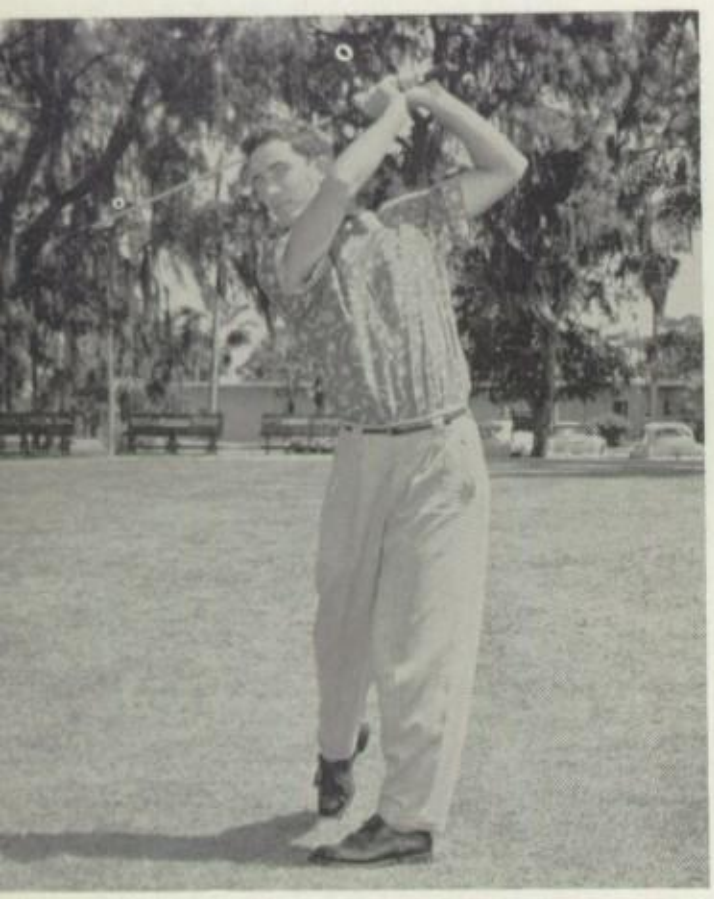
Golf

Out of thirty golf teams in the state tourney, ours placed second. It won the first Western Conference golf championship, and its record is ten wins, one tie, and one loss, the loss being to a non-conference team.





BILL MITCHELL

LARRY MEYER

JACK PRESCOTT, second place winner in Western Conference finals.

DICK METZ

This Is Your Life—Class of 1955

You were born everywhere in the United States—North, South, East, and West. You drooled, cried, laughed, squinted, squalled. You were photographed and adored. Then after nine years of toddling and bicycling to school, you came to SPHS. Dr. Whittier, Godmother Miss Lynch, Godfather "Doc" Geneva welcomed you. For a moment, a maze of corridors and doors confused you, until, with the help of upperclassmen and teachers, you began to feel at ease and—at home.

REMEMBER YOUR SOPHOMORE YEAR?

Sophomore Tea—introducing your parents to your various teachers. Devil Day . . . the Bonfire . . . Student Government and Class Elections. The Sophomore Ball, when you learned that Bud Carroll, Pat Constantine, Dick Jones, and Carol Lee Mulhollem were to be your leaders, and that Lynn Willingham and Bob Bolton would represent you in Student Council.

Then began a schedule of stirring events. Your "Green Imps" had a successful gridiron season—only one loss. Hollywood stars, headed by Carleton Carpenter and Mel Ferrer, visited you. Mr. Bennett's The Desert Song delighted you. College Day puzzled you, for college was a long way off according to your calendar.

In quick succession came the Harvest Ball, the Flappers' Flounce, the Holiday Hop at Christmas, and the Midnight Madness dance on New Year's Eve—all gay and debonair. Shortly after, came mid-terms. Not so gay and debonair, but enlivened by your first assembly program woven around the theme, "A Tour of Foreign Countries."

Spring brought the Mardi Gras, Cupid's Capers, the Sportsmans' Ball, and the Keyette Dance. Arlene Fillinger and Gail Lloyd edited the Sophomore edition of the P & P. Norman Mullins was acclaimed as the only Sophomore to make the Varsity football and basketball teams, Dr. Whittier moved up county, "Doc" became principal, and Mr. Mac followed him as Dean of Boys. Then your SPHS band went to Washington, D. C., to represent Florida in the Cherry Blossom Festival, and the Spanish students went to Mexico. Your SPHS Sophomore horizon was broadening.

And so it had. You cast your first ballot for officers of the Student Council. While upperclassmen went to the Junior-Senior Prom, you had your own ball, May Daze, with Johnny Ballentine and Carol Lee Mulhollem as king and queen. You attended your first No-So-We-Ea assembly, during which your yearbook was dedicated to Band Director Everett Roberts. You had had no hand in choosing the dedication, but you approved wholeheartedly because you had grown to appreciate his merits.

At year's end, you gave your thanks to your class advisors, Miss Carpenter, Miss MacKenzie, and Mr. Hall. And you said goodbye to your schoolmates who were scheduled to attend the new Boca Ciega High School in the fall. After thirty-four years of being the only Senior high school in St. Petersburg, SPHS was to share the honor and responsibility of training teen-agers with Boca Ciega. Again your horizons were broadening.

AND NOW, YOUR JUNIOR YEAR

From the very beginning, under the direction of your advisors, Miss Carpenter and Mr. Davis, you started working hard with your class officers, Mike Athanason, Pat Constantine, Marsha Miller, and Dolores Kuban, to make money for your Prom at projects such as, selling the little green book, "School Daze," working in parking lots, and selling pom-poms.

You found that the Junior year brought a change of schedule starting at 8:45 and ending with a sixth period (for some of the unfortunates) at 3:30; it was the year when the "little imps" became "big devils" in football and basketball, and the trip to Quebec was taken by the French and History departments in the fall. College Day, the Harvest Ball, and Homecoming completed the fall activities.

February and March were filled with events that kept your head spinning. National Honor Society tapped twenty-five Juniors for initiation, a great honor. Arlene Fillinger and Jim Hays edited your Junior edition of the P & P. The usual round of annual dances: Mardi Gras, Mr. Bennett's Naughty Marietta, etc. And to your great credit, you presented the first three-act play produced by the Junior Class in the history of SPHS: The Man Who Came to Dinner. Fine production, too.

May 3 brought elections and the announcement that Bud Carroll would be president of Student Council; Arlene Fillinger, editor of the P & P; Carol Lee Mulhollem, Senate president; Jane Wilson, No-So-We-Ea editor; and Sarah Wittstruck, I.C.C. president to lead you in your important role as Seniors.

Career Day followed. You were interested, but not as much as you were to be later.

For his untiring efforts as father of your beloved school, "Doc" Geneva received the No-So-We-Ea dedication; we really liked that.

The long-awaited Junior-Senior Prom arrived on May 28, and you found that all your worry, planning, and just plain hard work were not in vain, when Seniors, Juniors, and Faculty were thrilled with the breathtaking "Oriental Paradise." Romance, fun, and a magical mood prevailed, as you danced at a Prom long to be remembered by all of SPHS. Special credit should be given to the class officers, class advisors, and the Prom Co-Chairmen, Jackie Gregory and Danny Woodham, for a splendid job.

Final exams ended the year, and you looked forward to suntans, vacations, and the fall when you would step into the shoes of the Seniors. But again you had to say goodbye to friends who would be attending another high school—Northeast—come September.

YOUR SENIOR YEAR

This is the anticipated year that seemed so far away when you entered the doors of SPHS in 1952.

Fine crowds turned out for the Hi-Y's "Get Acquainted Dance," where it was announced that Mike Athanason, Pat Constantine, Nancy Frey, and Don Pearson would set the pace for you as Senior class officers, and that Dick Jones and Skip Wilhelm—as in the year before—would be your delegates to Student Council.

The community got a weekly review of happenings at St. Pete High on your radio program—"Inside SPHS"—with Jackie Gregory and Stewart Kendall announcing.

You got into the full swing of Senior activities when the chairmen of the Senior class committees were announced and their committees chosen.

Every event held greater importance this year. You took College Day seriously, because you knew it meant definite plans for your future education.

You received the spotlight at the Harvest Ball, and when eighteen members of your class were tapped for National Honor Society initiation in the fall.

Homecoming brought new features: under the sponsorship of S. G., clubs held a parade of floats reviewed by Queen Laurie Turscott and her court, Betty Otey, Dolores Kuban, and Jocie Horlacher. On the football field, the "Green Devils" overcame Boca Ciega and Northeast in their first gridiron tlits with the across-town rivals, to win the city championship.

Your basketball team copped the City, Western Conference, and Regional Championships. This meant three more trophies for the crowded trophy cases, of which SPHS is very proud.

Mid-term exams followed. Then the usual round of dances and activities: Cupid's Capers, the Mardi Gras, with Danny Woodham reigning as King Rex VI and Dolores Kuban as Queen . . . the Operetta, "Down In the Valley" . . . the Class Play, "Two Blind Mice" . . . then the bewilderment over the Senior placement tests and term papers.

With the realization that the Prom was nearing, you attended the Sportsmans' Ball, the Sorcerer's Ball, raved over the P & P's Spring Magazine, and rehearsed for Class Night.

Queen Jane Fox and King David Hortin reigned at the 1955 Junior-Senior Prom, " 'Neath the Southern Moon." The Juniors were complimented for a beautiful and memorable dance.

While you were busy with the aforementioned activities, the spring athletes were holding St. Pete High's banner high in track, baseball, tennis, swimming, and golf.

Everything seemed to rush into the final month as spring fever made it hard to concentrate on math problems and exam reviews. You were busy with graduation invitations, signing your annuals, which was dedicated to Mr. Mac, and the unforgettable Class Night, "His Majesty Below," produced under the direction of Sarah Wittstruck and Mike Felton. Then suddenly your glorious years at St. Pete High drew near their close.

Caps and gowns made you look dignified at Move-Up Assembly and Baccalaureate, and you gathered as a class under the lights of Stewart Field on June 14, 1955. Those lights looked a little misty through your eyes as you held your head high with the pride of having fulfilled your pledge to your school of leaving SPHS not only as good as you found it, but better for your having been there.

This was your life! Congratulations, Class of 1955!

1955 Class Will

We, the 1955 Senior Class of St. Petersburg High School, using our superior intellect and judgment, give and bequeath complete and perfect ownership of the following, to the members of the 1956 Class.

I, Jane Wilson . . . my ability to talk constantly and say nothing, to Barbara Jackson, who already has this ability.

I, Dick Glennon . . . my art of hoarding money to Roger Doyle, who is a great spendthrift.

I, Ned Latta . . . my scholastic ability to Foster Merker, who might need it.

I, Ronnie Gettig . . . my sixth period study hall, and many "F's" to Ronny Tweed.

I, Jean Wright . . . all the headaches that go with being able to draw (because you'll end up doing art work for everyone!) to Nadi Lane . . . who will love the work as much as I have!

I, Pat Martin . . . the right to have fun in the horn section of the band to Augie Kuhn.

We, Nancy Cook and Pat Seavers . . . our S.S.S. notebooks that we completed the day they were due to any Junior procrastinator.

I, Ann Leighton . . . my ability to get low grades in chemistry to Worth Woody.

We, Judy Hewitt and Dolores Kuban . . . our leftover shoe polish to the Junior cheerleaders.

I, Melvin Colman . . . my seat in Miss Hancy's Algebra class, which I occupied for three years, to anyone who is crazy enough to take Algebra II.

I, Bob Bolton . . . my broken collarbone to any Junior who wants to win a football letter and not have to work for it.

We, Bobbie Boehm, Judy Franklin, and Janice Brumit . . . our wonderful times after all the basketball games to any Junior girls who can stand the strain!

I, Marion Brindle . . . my seat in chemistry class to anyone who can take it.

I, Sally Roberts . . . my ability to sew well to Janelle Dillon.

I, Mary Mallette . . . my figures in bookkeeping to Dorothy Patten, because her's don't always add up.

I, Jane Carson . . . my parking place on sixth Avenue to latecomer Larry Meyer.

We, Shirley Kearney and Virginia Todd . . . our locker troubles to the future partners of locker 35.

I, Janice Stegall . . . all my nicknames, "Stegalburger," "Corky," and others to Judy Calkins who has none.

I, Pat Mulligan . . . my ability to chew gum gracefully to Kay Rutland.

I, Pat Shaffer . . . my ability to strike sour notes on the piano in concert choir to Joyce Sheats.

I, Manley Davis . . . my rusty scalpel and dehydrated hands from formaldehyde to Dick Cronk.

I, Sally Hunt . . . my "apple-polishing" to Myra Glasure.

I, Alice Thonen . . . my band stripes and roll book to any Junior crazy enough to undertake the job.

We, Robert Speakman and Michael Watterson . . . our Physiology pig, Whitney, to John Harrison and Sally Simmons because we had so much fun "cutting up" in class.

I, Joyce Sullivan . . . my high-pitched voice and my ability to yell at football games to Donna Patterson.

I, Suzanne Waller . . . my extraordinary bass voice to Head Cheerleader Wendy Gardiner.

I, Marjorie Gail Jenkins . . . my ability to be late for church to Jeanneane Shean who is always on time.

I, Sharron Heim . . . my ability always to drive safely to Eve Lowe who doesn't.

I, David Hortin . . . my size twelve basketball shoes to Dick Cronk who uses them most of the time.

We, Don Pearson and Andy Page . . . our sweaty undershirts and "air-cooled" gym shoes to Freddy Williams and Art Ritter who will need them for Soccer games.

I, Dolly Daugherty . . . my banged up '52 Packard to Nancy Lowe who needs it to get to D.C.T. class on time.

I, Rae Perroni . . . my NHS Treasurer's Book and dues receipt book to any Junior who knows how to squeeze blood out of a stone.

I, Sherry Nichols . . . my ability to goof in the Annual Room to Carolyn Cushman.

We, Gladys Dardene and Cora Hargrave . . . our famous ability to kill time in good ole orchestra to Bobbie Carson and Janet Peacock.

We, Bub Carroll and Bruce Hadlock . . . our ability to clean house, wash dishes, and cook, as true bachelors, to Mr. Shananberger and Mr. Davis.

I, Janet Rowley . . . my non-gossipy gossip column to Wendy Gardiner in "hope" she can make it more gossipy.

We, Bill Ritter, Tom Pheil, and Dick Scully . . . our all-night ride and pizza pies on January 12, 1955, to any venturous Juniors.

I, Bob Saltz . . . my French Horn polish to anyone ambitious enough to use it.

I, Marietta Richardson . . . the dusty pigeon-holes in the bandroom library to Pat Lane.

I, Henry Peavy . . . my chair in D.C.T. class, my good looks, and my curly hair, to Pete Anda.

I, Janet Slote . . . my lost Geometry book to any unfortunate Junior who finds it.

We, Dot Pounds, Millie Van Valkenburg, Crystal Poyette . . . the honored title "Three Musketeers" to Linda Sherman, Donna Jean Laney, and Carolyn Cushman, because we know they'll live up to the title.

I, Mary Lou Hawk . . . my soggy bassoon reeds and all the bassoon solos in band to Bea Romenallo.

I, Donna Zahm . . . my Glenn Miller record of Moonlight Serenade to Jackie Metzger.

I, Stewart Kendall . . . my ability to keep from fouling out in basketball games and to miss free throws to Herschel Sheets.

I, William Warren Wright . . . my ability to make stupid mistakes on all "trig" tests to next year's students of Miss Goertz.

I, Jane Fox . . . my southern accent and clothes pin to Don Clark in Case Mr. Davis' brain in formaldehyde happens to fall from the shelf again.

I, Ellen Williams . . . my ability to mop (especially Miss Lynch's office) to Brenda Willingham.

I, Radford Smith . . . my most expedient cow-call and well-worn iceman pants to Dan Schuh.

I, Sue Fulton . . . my much-used nickname "Alawishes" to Donna Jean Laney.

I, Jim King . . . my empty seat and empty mind in Mr. Bell's Physics class to Paul Stegard.

I, Wylie Gilmore . . . my superior intelligence and quietness to Doris Jean Lane.

I, Anselaine Dillard . . . my gym suit and tennis shoes to Judy Calkins.

I, Mike Schneider . . . the pigeons over the front entrance to anyone who hasn't been hit.

We, Alan Loew and David Lee . . . our expensive-type automobile accidents to any "wise guy" who skipped the Safety Assembly.

I, Jean McCannon . . . my place on the tennis team to Sandra Lewis.

I, Dale Patten . . . my dubious running ability to Roland Watts.

We, Joan Green and Kathy Clewlow . . . our curly hair to Lynda Milliken and Andy Jones in the hope that they can keep it combed better than we did.

I, Jerry "Tiny" Knight . . . my debt of brownie points owed to "Lizzie" Carpenter to Capers Jones.

I, Carol Terpening . . . my band officer's stripes to any Junior wanting to repair uniforms and to work up spectacular drill shows.

I, Wallace Cosgrove . . . my copies of Pogo to Paul Beach because he will need them in Mr. Neff's English Class.

I, Dudley Ayers . . . my outstanding ability to make first string on varsity team to Gene Fulford.

I, Donna Thomas . . . my old shorthand notebooks carefully stacked in my locker to Virginia Lapham.

I, Kenneth Wood . . . my book covers, notebooks, and my secret on how to stay thin to Bill Smout.

I, Jean Whetstone . . . my ability to drive without driving Mr. Lakus completely crazy, to anyone who takes Drivers' Education next year.

I, Jim Box . . . my white admits to Terry Caldwell who had a tendency to collect pink ones.

I, Joseph Brown . . . my brownie points in "trig" and physics to John Harrison; he'll need them for a starter.

I, Betty Jane Cook . . . my knowledge of Greek to Jerry Eberts who gets much too curious about it in Spanish Class.

We, Norris and Art Counts . . . our seats in Mr. Mac's office to Bill Lundy and Dick Caravana.

I, Jo Ann Costner . . . my ability to keep Miss Lynch's daily absentees in a mess to Myrna Betts.

I, Phyllis Capria . . . my binoculars to Tommie Collins so she can get a better look at all the certain someones while collecting attendance.

I, Michael Omarr Stone . . . my still warm seat in Mr. Davis' Physiology Class to any Junior who thinks he wants to be a doctor.

I, Ronny Berry . . . my classes, glasses, and lassies, along with my short hair and bad looks, to Art Ritter.

I, Charles Houk . . . my collection of Rhythm and Blues records to Leonard Shaw, the best WIOK disc jockey on the air.

I, Yvonne Hicks . . . my stepladder to any underclassman who is as short as I am.

We, Gail Lloyd and Sally Lumley . . . our ability to make "one" "A" between us in advanced Spanish class to Carolyn Cushman and Betty Jane Glisson.

We, Jim McGowan and Allan Mason . . . our nice warm chairs in bandroom to Sue Drew and Barbara Broome.

We, Jean, Bud, Carol, Dick, Sara, and Sally—the Senior Class Will Committee—hereby will and bequeath our ability to judge wills by "content" only, a dozen well-sharpened pencils, a high wastepaper basket, and last but not least—the ability to gossip . . . to next year's Will Committee, as they will surely need these "assets"!

1955 Class Prophecy

The sun shines down on a big white hospital on the fourteenth day of June in the year 1966. On the second floor in Room 203 sits a bewildered man. He is shaking his head, for he cannot remember a single thing. Standing off to one side and whispering are a doctor and two nurses. The doctor is Hugh Sullivan, M.D., P.H.D., D.D.O. Miss Soutter, the nurse, is just informing the doctor about schedule changes.

"Schrammel, Barnes, Curry, Jenkins, Perroni, Doyle, Sullivan, Wolcott, Richardson, Daugherty, and Worley are taking over the second floor at seven in the morning." She left the room as another doctor entered.

"Well, Dr. Gerlach," said Sullivan, "it appears our patient is suffering from lapse of memory due to a severe head blow. The blow has also caused his upper gums to discolor. As you leave, will you ask the medical secretary, Miss Bryant, to send up one of the dentists?"

"Whom would you prefer, Butrick, Bryant, or Donley?"

"I think Donley will do. He's a left-handed dentist and the patient has a tooth missing on the left side. Also send Optometrist Box and X-Ray Technician Martin."

The doctors leave the room. The patient sits up and stares out the window, trying to remember who he is. His eyes come to rest on some magazines.

"Well, maybe, if I look at these, I might be able to remember something."

He picks up the latest issue of Science News and discovers that Gail Lloyd and Manley Davis have received medals for their work on diet deficiencies of fleas. As he leafs through, he reads: "Agriculturists and horticulturists convene in Chicago. Mr. Hood and Mr. Hendrix and U. S. Chief Forester Bary Santy are the main speakers." A picture then catches the eye of our victim. In it two men are shaking hands. The caption reads: "Bud Carroll, advisor to the President on animal husbandry, congratulates Mr. Ronald Forbes on his recent and successful trip to Africa."

All of these news items have stirred his memory. He then picks up an issue of Lime and begins searching for more news and clues.

He glances over the masthead and finds that Mike Felton is editor-in-chief; Jim Hays, publisher; Mike Schneider, managing editor; Boehm, Ibold, and C. A. Mitchell, art directors; Rowley, Squire, and Lightsey, contributing editors.

On the national scene he finds that a certain Mr. Athanason is causing quite a stir in the democratic party. David Staton, F.B.I., has been investigating Adcock-Buick Motors. Also, at a big get-together of all the top engineers in the country in Washington, D. C., were Wilhelm, Brown, Cihak, Dickson, Gaskill, Gilmore, Richardson, Glover, Heath, Lamb, Rich, Salvant, Myers, and Bolton. The chairman of the group is Mr. Wm. Shilling.

Our patient continues to read. "The President entertained some world travelers last week. Among these ladies were Beverly Russell, Janice Stegall, Janet Slote, Laurie Truscott, Carol Terpening, Sue Waller, Jane Wilson, Jean Wright, and Jane Fox. While the travelers were with the President, the stewardesses of their transcontinental plane—Kuban, Otey, and Poyette—were touring the nation's capital."

"Harvard's Philosophy Professor Dick Jones and his assistants Kahlenberg, Strain, and Williams have written a phenomenal book entitled, How to Live Peaceably with the Atom Bomb. Don Pearson, owner of three national radio and TV networks, plans a colossal coverage of the book's publication date. Pearson Radio and TV will carry interviews with such world-known religious leaders as Agnes Scott's Dean Mildred Van Valkenburg and Missionaries-to-India Sarah Wittstruck, Virginia Walker, Harriet Foster, and Peggy Doty. Debaters Sue Strimer and Leah Jacobson will tear the book apart and put it together again over BBC in London. Talented Marsha Miller and Photogenic Carol Lee Mulhollem will Emcee the show."

The next thing that catches his eye is an article on the Secretary of the Year Nominees. "Out of all the secretaries in New York City, twelve have been selected by the Chamber of Commerce as nominees from New York to the secretary-of-the-year contest. They are Angelica Messina of the Wm. Wright Co., Sally Shaw of Willingham, Inc., Sharon Heim of Browne Casting Agency, Carol Jones of the Ellen Williams' Architectural Firm, Beverly Seamans of the Wm. Youmans' Printing Co., Joyce Stansil of the Agee and Constantine Modeling Agency, Patty Doty of the Ballard Music Co., Virginia Jones of the Nichols Construction Co., Irene Dunn of the Spanish American Airlines, Carolyn Kupper of the Lightsey Dancing School, Linda Lakin and Jean McCannon of the Dumont TV Corp."

In the world of entertainment, he finds that Producer Bob Saltz has signed up Warren Thomason and the Three Chords—Nancy Frey, Mary Lou Hawk, and Bette Le Fevre. The "Home Folks" were off the air last week because Tommy Pheil and Dick Scully had an accident in their sailboats. TV Star Jackie Gregory had Dot Pounds, Danny Woodham, Cora Hargrove, and Denny Rager tossed out of the Stork Club by Head Bouncer Vincent Gagliardo for not laughing at one of her jokes."

The Education section gave this information: "Mary Lucille Tuthill will head the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare . . . Officers of the Teachers of America Club are President Stouthearted Strout, Vice President Conscientious Conner, Secretary Ambitious Ademy, Treasurer Delightful Dardenne, Historian Gracious Granger, Social Chairman Happy Horlacher, Program Chairman Careful Kearney, and Publicity Chairman Fastidious Fillinger."

The sport section yielded this news: "Biggest event in wrestling history! Ray "the Masher" Neri and Dick "the Heap" Chappelear will vie for the world's welterweight championship at Madison Square Garden . . . Gordon MacKenzie pitched a no-hitter in the first game of the series today, giving the Yankees a good start on the pennant . . . The four greatest football players were honored at a Notre Dame banquet yesterday. Long, Ritter, Ray, and Doebrick received trophies . . . Two world records were set last night as Dale Patten ran the mile in 3:52.0 and Bob D'Andrea won the Olympic weight-lifting title . . . Swimmer Martin Moe won the 100-yard freestyle for the U. S. . . . Women in the sports light this week are Pat Shaffer and Jacy Battles, the two tennis greats, and Judy Hewitt with her aquabelles performing now in Europe . . . For the second time, Bill Mitchell has won the St. Petersburg open . . . Dave Hortin, Ned Latta, Joe Tito, and Dixie Walker were voted the most outstanding pro basketball players . . . At Indianapolis, Terry Kelley came across the finish three minutes ahead of the others, making it six wins in a row."

After thoroughly going through Lime, he picked up a copy of the St. Petersburg Times and discovered that Managing Editor John O'Hearn had been voted the "father of the year." Also Sportscaster Stu Kendall is now on a coast-to-coast hook-up—St. Pete to Tampa.

"The firm of Hendry, Hadlock, and McIntyre opened a new bank with an impressive ceremony. Multi-millionaires Charles Moreland and Andy Page were among the first to take their money to the new bank. Secretary Harriet Whittington made the deposit. She rode in an armored truck."

"Norman Mullins and Jerry Jenkins announced recently that their firm will put the first atom-powered car on the market."

All of this reading has done something to our amnesia victim. His brain begins to clear.

"Why, I know who I am. I'm an alumnus of St. Pete High. All of these famous people I've been reading about were my buddies back in '55. Good ole St. Pete High!"

Senior Class Song

(Sung to the tune of "As Time Goes By")

As leaving time draws near, we suddenly remember the things that happened here. Oh! happiness we found in you, Our St. Pete High.

We thought we'd be so glad to leave these ivy halls, But now we feel so sad. For leaving you is not so easy at all, Our St. Pete High!

Down through the years you nursed us right along, Teaching the right way; Telling us the wrong. And slowly, surely, we came right out and grew. Oh! How we will miss you!

We'll always fight for you, We'll be so faithful, too. We'll never let you down. Our loyalty we pledge to you—Our St. Pete High!

It'll be the same old story, We'll fight for fame and glory. A case of do or die. We'll always cherish St. Pete High, As Time Goes By.

The joys and pleasures that were yours and mine, will always be treasures we'll keep till end of time, Deep in our hearts your mem'ry will remain, Through time you'll stay the same.

We bid you fond farewell, and time will only tell us what the future holds, We'll always cherish St. Pete High, As Time Goes By.
